

I ask that you please respect the current Indiana Telephone Privacy Law as it stands. The law has provided the releif from phone solicitation that was asked for by Hoosiers. If I wish to do further business with company's, I will contact them.